

BACH WITH THE BEST

PENINSULA MUSIC SOCIETY
MELBOURNE CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

2016 STUDENT VIOLIN/CELLO MASTERCLASSES 10am– 12 noon SUNDAY 29 MAY

Peninsula Music Society is inviting local violin and cello students to join small group Bach masterclasses with two leading musicians from the Melbourne Chamber Orchestra.

Who will conduct the masterclasses? - William Hennessy, artistic director of the MCO and noted music educator, will conduct the violin masterclass and Michael Dahlenburg, brilliant cellist and conductor, will lead the cello masterclass.

Who can apply? - Violin and cello students of at least AMEB Grade 5 or equivalent who live or study in the Mornington Peninsula Shire, Frankston City or postcodes 3197, 3912 or 3977 are invited to apply for the SIX positions in each class.

How to apply? - Applications are to be made by email submission to mariese.shallard@mco.org.au with a copy to president@pmsmusic.asn.au and should comprise the completed application form together with an unedited smartphone video, of no more than five minutes duration, of the student playing the Bach piece they would present in the masterclass.

Closing date for applications? - 5pm. Monday 8 May 2016.

Notification of successful application? - PMS will notify successful applicants, with details of the venue, by 15 May to allow around a fortnight for preparation.

How much does it cost? - Successful applicants will pay a fee of $30.
